Sunday 3rd July 2022 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction: In our gospel today the disciples are rejoicing because they have cast out many devils: "Master, even the devils submit to us when we use your name." Jesus quickly responds: "I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven." Satan was cast down from heaven because of his pride. Jesus does not want the disciples to make the same mistake. They should never forget that it is God who does all these things, and they are just His instruments. That is why, Jesus added: "Do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven." The temptation of power is the most insidious of all.

God bless,
Fr Morrough

Universal Synod Responses: Our first word is a heartfelt 'Thank You' to all who engaged in the process of gathering diocesan responses to help Pope Francis and the Synod of Bishops in reflecting on the Church as Communion, Participation and Mission. Over 1500 individuals took part, and group submissions were received from families, organisations and parishes. Not all of these were Catholics who attend church regularly. The responses from our diocese will join those from the other dioceses in England and Wales, Europe, and the rest of the world. These will be discerned by the Synod of Bishops who will gather in Rome in 2023.

You can read the full response and a summary at www.dioceseofsalford.org.uk/faith/synod.
